That Disease Breeds Disease.

It is a notorious fact. It is therefore o vital imortance to check maladies in their birth, ere they have a chance to develop birth, cre they have a chance to develop other and more dangerous disorders. As a means of checking complaints which, if allowed to preceed, finally disorder the entire system, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a medicine the use of which cannot be too strongly urged upon the sick and feeble. The physical functions are regulated by it, it insures the acquisition of vigor by the debilitated, and it substitutes a cheerful condition of mind for gloom and despondency. Dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, and kidney and bladder troubles yield to its remedial influence, it counteracts a tendency to gout cuce, it counteracts a tendency to gout and rheumatism, and invigorates the nerves. Moreover, it is derived from purely botanical sources, and in this, as in every other respert, is superior to the mineral remadies of the pharmacopoela. deodaw1w

THOSE DOCTORS!

It was rather an amusing sight this morning to observe the movements of members of the profession, each with long-drawn face and anxious e e, and physicians; those only, who possess diplomas from regular schools, or who have practiced for ten years in the state. being allowed, hereafter, to dose the good people of Illinois at their will and plansure. Never, in the history of Decatur, were so many doctors assembled in one room. The very air became lader with the aroma emanating from their pooket cases; and jalap, and ammonia, and opium, and soothing syrup, and poppermint, and campher, and Bateman's drops, and a hundred kindred How He Came to Construct drugs, mixed and mingled their essences in the pure atmosphere for two blocks around. One man with a severe headache was completely cared by hold ing his nose to the key-hole for three minutes. Another gentleman, in feeble health, was utterly prostrated for two hours, by breathing the contaminated uir as he sat at a window half a block away. A pigeon, chancing to fly across fund, and it is for the interest of the the street in front of the office where laborer to have that fund as large as the doctors were assembled, fell dead on the sidewalk below. The "deadly Upas" troe wasn't a circumstance to the poison issuing from that august assemblage.

How it all would have ended no one can tell. But when men and animals began to droop and stagger wildly in the street below, and little innocent children to fall into violent convulsions three hundred vards away, the city authorities thought it time to interfere, especially since the dectors were about deciding to adjourn to the opera house-Dr. King's office, twenty by forty feet in the clear, had grown quite too small to hold the their essences" "thick upon them," lived to tell the tale.

in a few minutes the victors and their friends were bowling along towards home, as fast as steam could carry them; Decatur was reached on time. and as the firemen stepped from the cars they were greeted by loud huzzas from the assembled crowd, which had learned the result of the contest through an extra issued from the REPUBLICAN about six o'clock. The Decatur Quards, under command of Lieut. Hall, escorted the firemen to their headquarters, and thus ended the trip to Litchfield. The conduct of our firemen during the trip was the subject of many favorable comments, every member of the three visiting companies comparting himself with the dignity of a gentleman. Prof. Goodman's band also came in for a large amount of praise. It never played better. The Decatur visitors, were extremely fortunate in falling into the hands of Alderman Julius C. Machler, one of the livest citizens of Litchfield, who believes in hospitality but detests repudiation. And right here it might as well he said that the council of that city is sadly at loggerheads, standing three against three on every question that arises. Our good friend Julius has held come so accustomed to calling for a balthe words, "Well, let's take a vote,", almost unconsciously. At first his guests way in which he interlarded his conversation, but when they were [enlightened on the subject they were more charmed the sentiment of all the Decatur visitors inarles for the afternoon display and con- when we say, "He's a good one."

THE COMING CAMPAIGN

There is nothing for which we, as a stilen, have so since country to be a full as the great tidal wave of temper ance that is sweeping over so many states. We have looked aghast, and have been helpless, as me have seen strong drink drag our fair sons from our hearth-stones; as we have seen him lead our tallest intellects down to the lowest

And now the campaign its about to commence in our city. A few of Decatur's noble women have banded together in a W. C. T. U., have met together the past few months and discussed ways and means whereby our place could be faved from the power of Runi. In July maca, with four head of tretting herees, they sent their own entriest worker, It. Meeker of Maron, has a thorough Mrs. Rev. H. Buck, to the Lake Bluff bred stallbur, and two running herees. Mrs. Rev. H. Buck, to the Lake Bluff were astenished at this strange sort of Temperance Camp meeting, to scopre if possible, efficient aid for Decatur. In a personal interview with such workers as Francis Murphy, Dr. Reynolds and Miss Willard, she was advised to correspond by Barbor has on exhibition three loss with the "Western Temperance Apostle," Jacob Hoofstitler, of Sterling. Mr. Murphy said, "If you can get him he will? do as good a work for you as I can !-At last, by repeated invitations and very urgent solicitations, they have succeeded in procuring his servides. Next Baturday he, with his most successful colaborer, Col. Rowell, of Rockford, will commence work with us. They are men of the minds and untiring energy. They have themselves been confirmed inebriates. Under Mr. Murphy, Jacob Hoofstitler: was con verted and since then, has tolled inces santly to save others as he himself had been saved. He comes to us with a neart filled with love to End and inan and earnestly desirous of doing us good. In his last letter, from Darlington, Wis consin, he says, "We are meeting with glorious success in this city. Over sevon hundred have signed the pledge. at his home in Shelbyville, on the sick list Last evening eighty six hard-drinking men came forward, signed the pledge, and declared they would be sober men putting our trust in God, and if wo do, the results will be grand." arriving on the ground, and by night

We enrucatly entreat every citizen of Decatur, who has any interest in his fellows, to be ready to loud a helping hand, whether he has ever quaffed the maddening bowl or no. Parents, have you sone who are slipping steadily and surely from your homes to the gilled saloons? then work as you never worked before, to save them. Perchance your own fireslde has never been visited by spending several days in the purchase of the wily tempter, then work for the leve you bear your neighbors. And gers now clinging so lovingly, to your skirts, may begin to handle the tempting wine cup. You who can pray, pray this week mightily, that the "unseen presence of the Master" may be felt in our community, and that Decatur may be sayed from insbricty.
